

Mr. Nury Turkel
Chairman of the Board
Uyghur Human Rights Project

Nury Turkel is an attorney in Washington, D.C. specializing in regulatory compliance focusing on anti-bribery investigation and enforcement, data privacy, and aviation. In addition to his law practice, Turkel serves as Chairman of the Board for the Uyghur Human Rights Project (UHRP) in Washington, D.C. that he co-founded in 2004 and served its first Executive Director until 2006. UHRP works on Uyghur human rights research and documentation projects.

Turkel has testified before the U.S. Congress and given presentations at various universities, government institutions, and foreign policy forums. He has written commentaries on policy and legal matters in major U.S. publications, including The Wall Street Journal and Foreign Policy and has appeared on radio and television programs such, CNN, BBC, Fox News, Al Jazeera, France 24, NPR and ABC Australia.

Turkel received his Bachelor's degree from China's Northwest A&F University. He has a Master of Arts in International Relations and a Juris Doctorate degree from American University. He is proficient in several languages, including Turkish and Chinese.